FREE Business counseling sessions are held once a month at the Hudson Public Library. These valuable sessions are intended to help emerging entrepreneurs gain control by providing guidance and counseling in all aspects of funding and developing small business. If you need templates for your business plan, cash flow statements, and profit and loss templates or if you need to have your business analyzed, this service is for you. Please make an appointment by calling the library or by calling Jesse Esparza of the Small Business Development Center @ 720-837-0416.

English as a second language- starting the end of February and held every Monday from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m.
