Crime Alert-Updated 11-10-2021

On Tuesday, November 02, 2021, at approximately 4:46 pm the pictured, unknown race male entered the victim's vehicle in a parking lot on the 500 block of Dahlia Street, Hudson, CO. The suspect removed the victim's blue leather purse and contents, including credit cards, US Currency, Driver License, and other forms of identification. At the time of this crime the suspect was operating the pictured silver colored, late model four door Chevrolet four door with no license visible on the front. On that date at 5:07 pm the same male, while on foot, attempted to use the victim's credit card at The Barn Store, 540 Main Street, Hudson, Colorado to purchase gas using a red plastic gas can. The male then purchased a small amount of gas with cash and left the area on foot. The male then went to Love's Travel Stop, 201 E. Bison Highway where some of the stolen items were later recovered. At the time of the crime the suspect was wearing a beanie style knit cap, a black medical style face mask, a white hoodie style sweatshirt that is either two tone, or with a light grey colored t-shirt over it with a photograph of the musician, Tupac, tan or light brown colored pants and dark colored shoes with a lighter colored sole.

Anyone with information on this crime or a possible identity of this subject, please contact the Hudson Police Department, 303-536-9311 or Detective Randy Denison 720-597-0970. Case number 21-HP03169
